

Atheling books from Atherton Press Atheling books Atheling books

FILL OUT, TEAR OFF, AND MAIL TO
Atherton Press, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York 10011

Send me:

_____ The Nazi Movement.....	$3.75
_____ Ego and Milieu.....	3.95
_____ Nation-Building.....	1.95
_____ Taboo Topics.....	1.95
_____ Education Between Two Worlds.....	3.75
_____ Authority, Responsibility, and Education.....	1.95
_____ Herbert Spencer's Sociology.....	3.95
_____ The Social Theory of Georg Simmel.....	3.50
_____ Crisis and Hope in American Education.....	2.95
_____ Foundations of John Dewey's Educational Theory.....	2.75
_____ The Dewey School.....	3.95
_____ John Dewey: Master Educator.....	1.95

- ☐ Payment enclosed. (Atherton pays postage and handling. N.Y. State residents please enclose your local sales tax with payment)
- ☐ Bill me (plus postage and handling)
- ☐ On 30-day free examination for my course in _____ Enrollment_____

NAME _____ RANK _____

INSTITUTION _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

Teachers in accredited academic institutions in the United States and Canada will be allowed a 10% courtesy discount.

Send all orders from the British Isles and the European Continent directly to: European Book Service, Singel 516-518, P.O. Box 1706, Amsterdam, Netherlands.

Three books on the work of John Dewey

FOUNDATIONS OF JOHN DEWEY'S EDUCATIONAL THEORY

MELVIN C. BAKER

Indispensable to all concerned with the real Dewey and his significance for our day, this remarkable book demonstrates how Dewey blended psychology, sociology, logic, and ethics into a workable and effective theory of education. 224 pp. $2.75

THE DEWEY SCHOOL

KATHERINE CAMP MAYHEW and ANNA CAMP EDWARDS

An authoritative account of the history of the Dewey School — its origins, classes, methods, and underlying philosophy. The wealth of information contained in this book has been shaped into engrossing reading for students as well as scholars. 512 pp. $3.95

JOHN DEWEY: MASTER EDUCATOR

WILLIAM W. BRICKMAN
and STANLEY LEHRER, Editors

A comprehensive summary and evaluation of Dewey's work and his influence today, this volume consists of specially written chapters by distinguished authorities. A mine of information on Dewey as educational theorist, teacher, administrator, and political thinker, the book is equally valuable as a text and for reference.

176 pp. $1.95

THE NAZI MOVEMENTTHEODORE ABEL

This work, based on more than 600 autobiographies obtained from early Nazis, provides an answer to one of the crucial questions of this century: why Hitler came to power. The author has written a new Introduction for this Atheling edition.

336 pp. $3.75

EGO AND MILIEUJOHN CUMMING and ELAINE CUMMING

Based on a fresh socio-psychological theory of mental illness, this book clarifies many of the complex problems involved in the treatment of the mentally ill. Widely read, cited, and adopted in its clothbound edition, it is now available for the first time in paper covers.

312 pp. $3.95

NATION-BUILDINGKARL W. DEUTSCH and WILLIAM J. FOLTZ, Editors

What is a nation? What does its emergence mean to its people and to international stability? Nine area specialists analyze the birth and development of nations, new and old, in this challenging and enlightening survey of the problems of nation-building in today's underdeveloped areas. With a new Foreword by Professor Deutsch and an additional bibliography.

192 pp. $1.95

TABOO TOPICSNORMAN L. FARBEROW, Editor
Foreword by GORDON W. ALLPORT

Eleven distinguished scholars—including Feifel, Hooker, Murphy, Pomeroy, and Shneidman—discuss the obstacles they faced in conducting research on topics often still professionally “taboo,” such as death, sex, religion, and suicide.

160 pp. $1.95

EDUCATION BETWEEN TWO WORLDS*ALEXANDER MEIKLEJOHN

A work of major stature by one of the great innovators in American education, this wise and courageous book is required reading for all concerned with the basic issues of education.

320 pp. $3.75

AUTHORITY, RESPONSIBILITY, AND EDUCATION*R. S. PETERS

A boon for the teacher who seeks to encourage classroom discussion, this brilliant little volume challenges time-honored views on education and offers highly provocative reinterpretations of traditional concepts.

136 pp. $1.95

HERBERT SPENCER'S SOCIOLOGYJAY RUMNEY

A comprehensive and highly readable summary of Spencer's sociological teachings—the only full-scale assessment available. Reissued with a new Introduction by Professor Joseph Maier of Rutgers University.

376 pp. $3.95

THE SOCIAL THEORY OF GEORG SIMMEL*NICHOLAS J. SPYKMAN

The only complete account of Simmel's ideas, this classic exposition of the work of a founder of modern sociology now carries a new Foreword by Professor Ely Chinoy of Smith College.

320 pp. $3.50

CRISIS AND HOPE
IN AMERICAN EDUCATION*ROBERT ULICH

This classic and uniquely stimulating appraisal of our educational system is more timely today than ever. With brilliant cogency it argues that all efforts at raising the intellectual and moral standards in our schools are doomed to failure unless we boldly pair the right subject with the right talent.

256 pp. $2.95